ORDER

On May 3, 2017, respondent NLRB filed a letter advising the court that “serious settlement discussions are in progress” between petitioner and intervenor. On May 12, 2017, respondent filed a second letter notifying the court that petitioner and intervenor had “reached a settlement in this case,” and that “a joint motion to dismiss the case will be filed shortly.”

Thereafter, the Clerk’s office telephoned counsel for respondent and petitioner concerning the status of the settlement agreement on two occasions. First, on May 24, 2017, counsel for petitioner informed the Clerk’s office by telephone that a settlement had been reached and a joint motion for voluntary dismissal would be filed “in the near future.” On June 8, 2017, counsel for petitioner informed the Clerk’s office by telephone that the parties would file a joint motion for voluntary dismissal “next week.”

To date, no such motion has been filed. In light of the foregoing, it is, on the court’s own motion,

ORDERED that the parties either file a report on the status of settlement or an appropriate motion by 4:00 p.m. on Monday, June 26, 2017. The submission may not exceed 1300 words.
